

Hamilton County Awards Contract for Legal Interpreting and Translations to Affordable Language Services

CINCINNATI (July 31, 2012) – After a bidding process conducted by Hamilton County, Ohio, on behalf of the Municipal Court, Affordable Language Services (www.AffordableLanguageServices.com) was awarded a contract to provide interpreting and translation services to help judges, lawyers and legal professionals communicate with people who cannot speak English.

The company was awarded a one-year contract with an annual renewal clause over a five-year period 2012-17.

“We are delighted that Hamilton County selected our company based on our high quality interpreting and translation capabilities,” said Lynn Elfers, CEO at Affordable Language Services. “We have extensive experience providing language services for law firms and legal departments in the Tristate, and we look forward to working with the Municipal Court to help people who cannot speak for themselves at critical times in their lives.”

For more information on capabilities in legal interpreting, visit www.AffordableLanguageServices.com. The website features a blog article titled “What Lawyers Need to Understand about Legal Interpreters,” with practical tips on legal interpreting and translations: <http://www.affordablelanguageservices.com/legal-interpreters-what-lawyers-need-to-understand-about-them/>.

ABOUT AFFORDABLE LANGUAGE SERVICES

Based in the Blue Ash, Ohio, area, Affordable Language Services is a certified, female-owned family company that provides translation, interpreting and transcription services to 1,800 clients across the U.S. With more than 600 interpreters and capabilities in 200-plus languages including American Sign Language, the company works with leading clients in healthcare, education, legal and government sectors.

CONTACTS

Bryan Brown, (513) 410-4188, bryan@bryanbrowncomm.com

Gary Elfers, (513) 745-0888, gelfers@affordablelanguageservices.com